

I signed up for the Wis no call list to protect my privacy. I do not want any business to solicit me at any given time day or night using the telephone. If I need/want a good or service it is my responsibility to do the research and procurement. How can you guarentee that the businesses doing telemarketing are reputable firms and not some type of con.